Jeder... at the heart of change!

Welcome

As COVID-19 continues to have an impact across Melbourne and Sydney, our thoughts are with the amazing health care workers, support workers, neighbourhood and community houses and the incredible volunteers, who are tirelessly working to support people across our communities.

Whilst COVID might have grounded our community building team, Dee, Fiona and Michelle have been busy planning new online Community Development offerings including their Discoverables not Deliverables series (see below to register). They were also on the organising team for last months, hugely successful "CO-CREATING OUR FUTURE STORIES OF HOPE & ACTION - a "glocal" assets and strengths based (un)conference" with 39 sessions over 48 hours (see the stats below). Recordings for 38 of the sessions are available for viewing HERE

Keep an eye out for the teams new offerings via our social media.

Until next time stay safe

ABCD - Discoverables not Deliverable Series: how to ignite locally-led action when social distancing

Many of the current challenges faced by individuals and communities require transformational change! How does asset-based community development (ABCD) build communities from the inside out by tapping into the gifts and strengths of everyone?

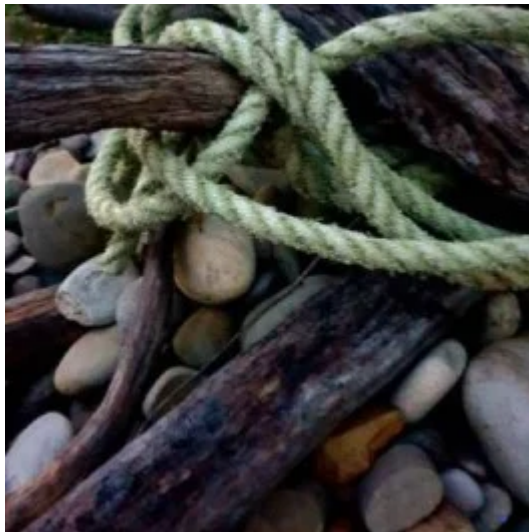

"Every single person has skills, abilities and gifts". John McKnight

Join us on this journey of discovery as we offer a series of three (3) highly immersive and interactive sessions which will introduce participants to a range of asset-based community development (ABCD) practices and processes for creating powerful actions and outcomes.

When: Over 3 weeks Friday 14, 21, 28 August 2020 from 12pm - 2pm

STORIES FROM THE FIELD

Our Stories Are Important – They Connect us to Each Other and to Place

My father kept an old family Bible in his wardrobe. This wasn't kept for religious observance but because it contained information about our forbears and a family tree. He would, on occasions, open the Bible, show me the family tree and tell stories about our ancestors.

I heard how they were “free” settlers, definitely not convicts.....

Effective Collective Impact: Through the Power of ABCD and RBA

The term Collective Impact is now getting a lot of attention in the health and human services world.

While the five conditions of Collective Impact are not new they provide an effective framework for guiding effective community action. The five conditions outlined by John Kania & Mark Krame include: Common Agenda, Shared Measurement System, Multiple Reinforcing Activities, Continuous Communication and a Backbone Support Organization. In this paper I will highlight how the principles and tools of Results Based Accountability™ and Asset-Based Community Development and can be used to more effectively launch a collective impact effort by reinforcing the five conditions.

The Offers and Needs Market

from the Post Growth Institute

The Offers and Needs Market is a guided process where community members come together to identify and exchange their passions, knowledge, skills, resources and needs.

Whether for free, barter, or a set rate, people offer and need things such as:

- * Graphic design
- * A place to live
- * A box of apples
