

QUESTIONS THAT FOSTER EMPATHY AND STORY- LEARNING:

IN HAWAIIAN,
THE WORD
MANA'O MEANS
TO THINK DEEPLY, TO CONCENTRATE,
TO REFLECT, TO GAIN INSIGHT.

CREATED BY JEDER INSTITUTE
FROM DANIEL GOLEMAN BOOK
"SOCIAL INTELLIGENCE: THE NEW SCIENCE OF HUMAN RELATIONSHIPS"

WWW.JEDER.COM.AU

1

What are three things that I should know about the most authentic you?

2

What makes an experience or interaction meaningful?

3

What about you most comforts others?

4

What types of questions make you most uncomfortable?

5

When does your curiosity create connections or understanding?

6

When does your curiosity create difficulty?

7

Who has challenged you to be better than you once were?

8

What role can silence play in a conversation?

9

What should people better understand about you?

10

When are you most observant?

11

Where do you feel most present?